HARD WORK AND A TEAM EFFORT SPELL EXCELLENCE

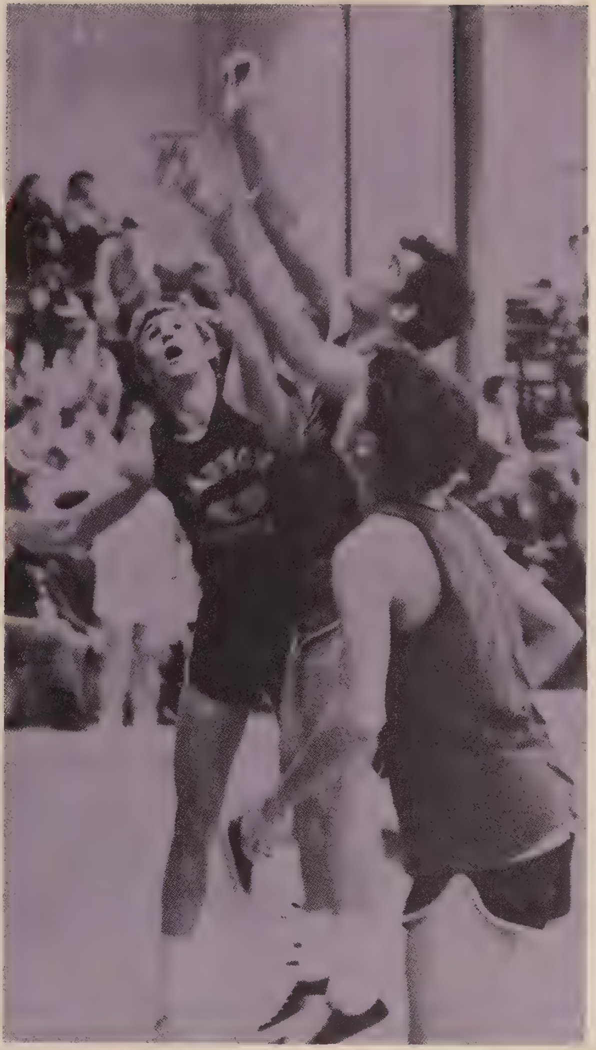
DIVERSITY IN ACTIVITIES INVOLVE MANY

The student at Madison has a wide range of activities to choose. Clubs appeal to the interested in areas such as bowling, languages, and even rocket launching. Above, Madison's marching band steps to the strains of "Aquarius." Upper right, Kathy Leonard executes a difficult movement on the balance beam. Members of Oakton's J.V. Hockey team listen to the advice of their coach. Lower right, more Juniors hurry to add the final touches to their hall before judging. Below, couples dance under the decorations from "jungle Book" at the Homecoming dance.



SPIRIT GAINS A BIG BOOST

There was an impressive boost in Madison's spirit this school year. Perhaps it was due to the addition of Victor E. Hawk, below, he was present along with the varsity cheerleaders at the football games. Left, the J.V. Hockey team, composed of Freshmen and Sophomores anxiously watch the older girls battle against a rival team. Upper left, a group of Senior boys gather around a picnic table in the Senior court yard. Members of the Yearbook staff examine a roll of underclassmen pictures just back from the printers. Upper right, Warhawk's Varsity members George Shida, Roger Neighborgall, and Larry Hicks leap for a rebound.

A FEW MOMENTS OF QUIET AND CONCENTRATION

PARTICIPATION — AN OPPORTUNITY TO WORK AND RELAX TOGETHER

No matter how much work has been done everyone needs a break from all the excitement. Left, senior Brad Little, an architectural student, adds the finishing touches to his house plans. Above, Mr. Berryman strikes up the band during a spirit raising assembly. Below, Larry Hicks and Mike Cornelius make use of age old "chin proppers" during class.

The new year brought many changes, all marked by the times. Among them were new students, new teachers, and a new principal. With these changes, came new spirit and involvement with one another.

PUBLICATION STAFFS MEET WITH CHANGES

In all areas of the three publications — Montpelier, Hawk Talk, and Heritage — changes abounded this year. The first was the acquisition of a new base of operations, the Publications Suite; three rooms formerly known as the bank became the much-used home of the staffs. Montpelier faced and met a challenge as it began the year with a new sponsor, Mr. Harry Shaffer. Heritage broke its tradition of publishing two issues yearly, producing instead several "rough" issues, a regular issue, and a poster issue. Hawk Talk, in an effort to save money and produce more current news, chose a new printing method which involved the purchase of a headline printer and hours upon sticky hours spent gluing the master layouts together in preparation for printing.

NEW ADMINISTRATION COMES TO MADISON

The unanimous choice for the most popular change of the year was undoubtedly our new principal, Mr. Taylor Williams. This was apparent by the spirit he evoked from the student body. Mr. Williams came to Madison with a desire to develop a rapport with all elements of the system, including students and teachers. He had little trouble winning the respect of everyone. In trying to make life a little more enjoyable for students, he ordered a soft drink machine available for student use after school. He also succeeded in bringing "Up With People" back to Madison. He gave seniors free study halls and the use of a room as the senior lounge. In spite of the fact that he was a principal, he was the type of person students could greet in the halls.

MR. WILLIAMS is a man worthy of the respect of all students.

NEW COURSES ADDED TO MADISON SCHEDULE

Several academic changes became a part of the Madison picture this year. The behind-the-wheel driver's education course, which is the follow-up to the classroom driver's education, has previously been taught after school and during the summer. However, this year it was incorporated into the student's daily schedule for one nine weeks period. This allowed those students who worked or had other activities which prevented them from taking the course after school to obtain the training required in order to get their licenses. For the first time this year, boys were allowed to enroll in home economics classes. Five senior boys joined the make-up of the senior homemaking class. They studied all the usual courses including cooking and sewing. With the success of these new courses, next year's curriculum will include such courses as advanced physics, history of mathematics and advanced music. It is quite evident that the students and faculty of Madison are becoming increasingly concerned with the quality of their curriculum.

LUNCH PERIOD CHANGES

Several changes affected the lunch periods of Madison students this year. The most important was the initiation of a teacher-monitoring system. This involved having each teacher devote half of his lunch period for nine weeks to keeping students within a limited area around the cafeteria. Another feature of lunchtime was actually begun late last year and was known then as "McMadison's." This was the lunchline serving hamburgers and french fries every day to accommodate those students who did not wish to purchase the planned lunch for the day. This year the menu was altered slightly to include hot dogs and barbecues for variety. The length of lunchtime was increased this year. The three lunch periods were an hour long which left time after eating for studying, relaxing or conversing with friends.

SOFT DRINK MACHINE OFFERS REFRESHMENT

A soft drink machine arrived at Madison this year, rented by the S.C.A. following a suggestion made by Mr. Taylor Williams. It was rented for the primary purpose of supplying the students of Madison who work after school on such activities as newspaper, yearbook, cheerleading and other clubs with cold drinks. The profits from the sale of the drinks were put into a general fund to be used for a variety of purposes. The drink machine was off-limits during school hours and opened its door at 3:30 daily. This proved to be one of the many surprises that the students of Madison have to thank Mr. Taylor Williams for.

THE SOFT DRINK machine was laid to rest in STORAGE #6.

SENIORS ARE GIVEN OWN PRIVATE LOUNGE

This past year a new senior privilege was introduced at Madison. At the beginning of the year, seniors were very unhappy to find themselves in controlled study halls with all the underclassmen. Mr. Taylor Williams then showed his faith in the maturity of the seniors by setting aside a room to be used by seniors only, and giving them free study halls. The lounge was furnished with a cabinet, a table, some chairs and a very comfortable couch. To complete the decorations, there were signs, an occasional poster, and a steady stream of messages on the blackboard. The room was a center for senior activities throughout the year

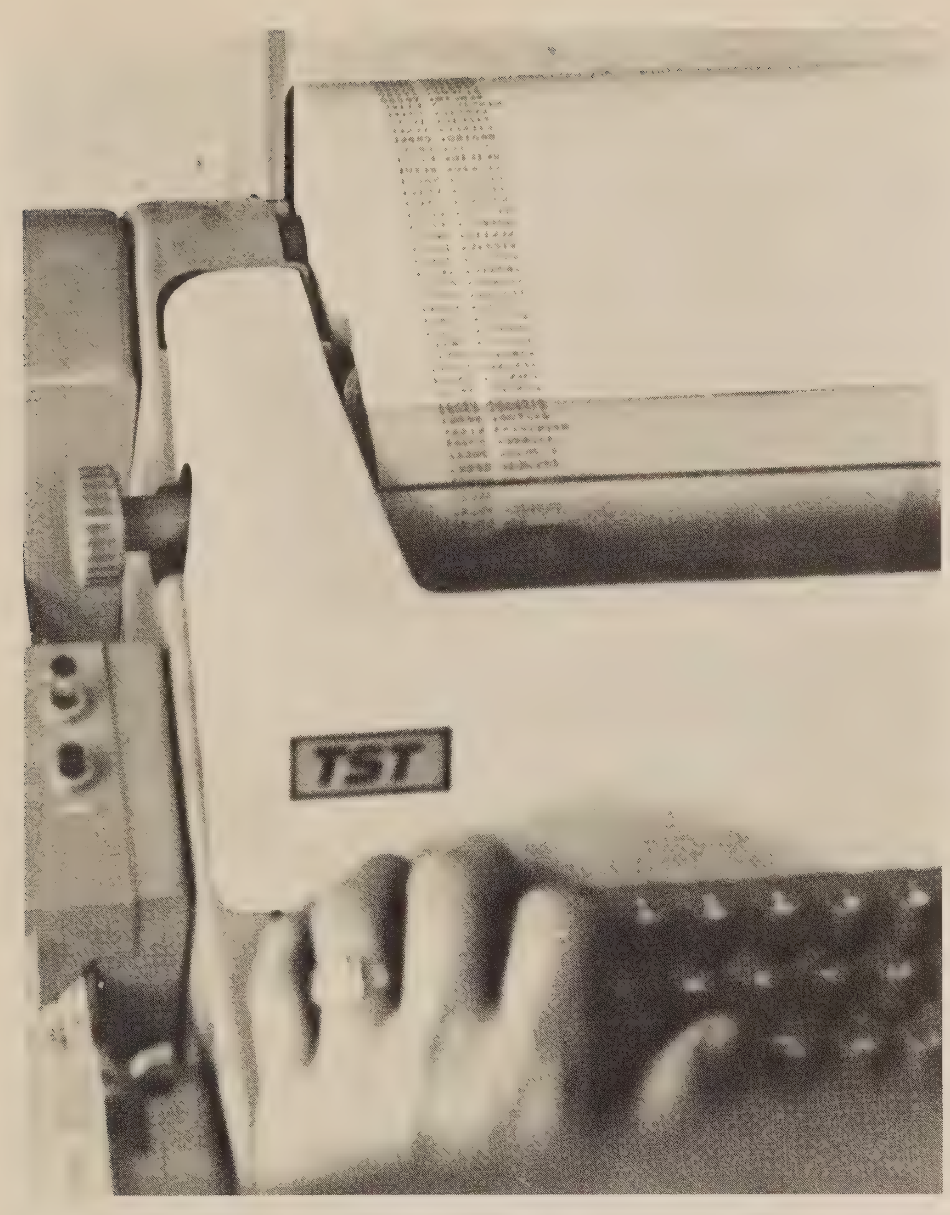
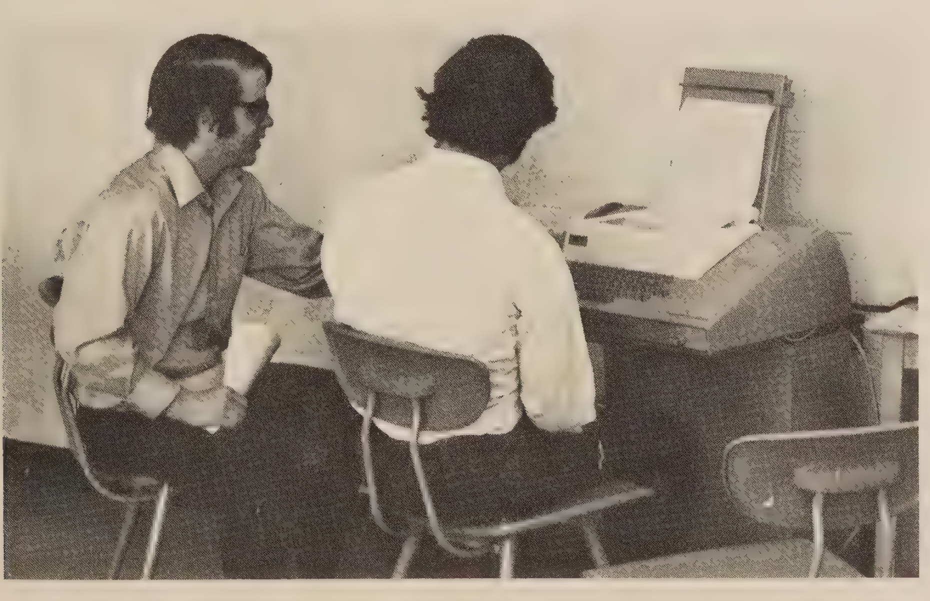
COMPUTER TERMINAL PUT IN USE THIS YEAR

A computer terminal was installed at Madison this year on a time-sharing basis. The terminal is connected to a large computer which was also used by other high schools in the area. Time-sharing means that Madison was assigned certain times during the day when our students and teachers were free to use the computer. Students in the computer science class were able to run their own programs, thereby obtaining experience on large computers. Previously, the only computer available for student use was a small portable model similar to an advanced adding machine. Students in advanced mathematics classes were also allowed to write programs and run them through the computer with the assistance of their teachers. The terminal offered opportunities to the stuents of Madison to broaden the scope of their education.



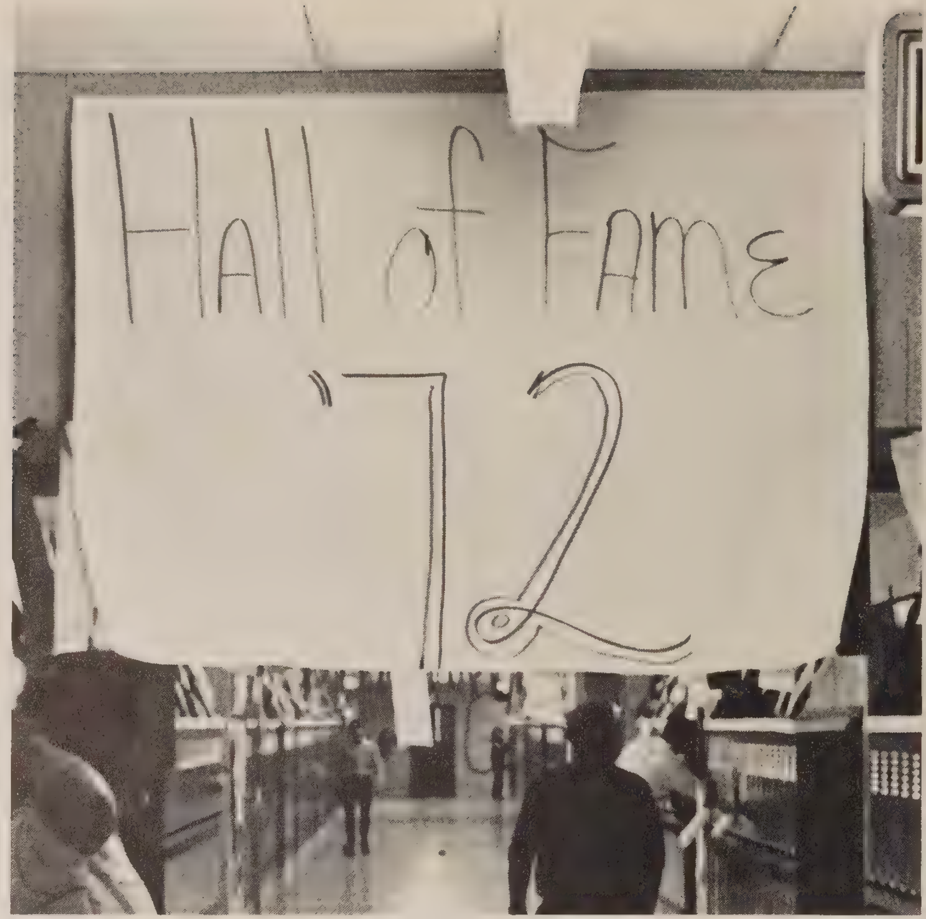
THE KEYBOARD of the terminal, resembling a typewriter keyboard, is used to feed information into the computer.



TWO STUDENTS go over the output they received from the terminal.

SPIRIT RISES AT MADISON

Contests sponsored by the Spirit Club to encourage enthusiasm about sports events were welcome addiions to the life at Madison. The classes competed to find which bought the most tickets to games, which could cheer the loudest, and which did the best job of decorating their hall. The prize for these contests was the Spirit Hawk which the winning class kept for a week. The Spirit Club was able to bring the spirit of Madison's students which had been hidden for so long into view once more.



THE SPIRITED JUNIORS won the hall decoration contest with their Hall of Fame.

SENIORS SHOWED their support of the team with streamers, posters, and signs.

POM POM CLUB IS ORGANIZED

The new pom pom squad was formed at Madison during the basketball season this year. The co-captains were Karin Knowles and Suzanne Chille, and the secretary-treasurer was Bev Homan. Under the leadership of their sponsor, Mrs. Smith, the girls learned various routines which they performed at the games.

SENIORS DO PROJECTS FOR THE COMMUNITY

This year, following a suggestion made by Mrs. Finch and Mr. Bowman, two government teachers, senior government students took part in the Vienna community and its problems in a new way. They each did research in an area which was of interest to them, and then many went out into the community to follow up their research. Two reports are represented here in pictures. One was by Jim Rosenbluth on the problems of overcrowding in and around Vienna. Another was done by a student who prefers to remain anonymous on the subject of a normal day in a hospital. Other projects included working with retarded children, running a teen club in Washington's Junior Village, helping take care of patients at St. Elizabeth's Mental Hospital, campaigning for Representative Scott, doing church work, spending time at the Vienna Day Care Center and starting Genesis here at Madison which is a drug abuse forum. These projects gave students a better view of the state of the community and the way it is run.

THE EMERGENCY ROOM at a hospital is the scene of many dramatic moments.

A HOSPITAL is a place of many emotions and moods, from the happiness of recovery to the loneliness and depression of a long-term patient.

Among the many activities seniors are involved with, graduation is of utmost importance. Throughout the year they have been working in the community by teaching at local elementary schools and nearby hospitals. From these and other experiences, practical knowledge was gained.

THE CLASS OF '71

As the Senior class finally reaches its goal — graduation, the bridge which leads to college . . . jobs . . . marriage . . . or Armed Forces is about to be crossed.
Many troubled waters have the seniors gone through, pouring through college catalogs, submitting job and college applications, arranging interviews, taking college boards and finally awaiting acceptance.
Often the worries and rough currents in the daily life of seniors bring rewarding results.
The crossing of the bridge frequently brings one to a better, more satisfying side. The seniors will have to anxiously await the result of their "crossing over" and work for their life-long goal with anticipation.

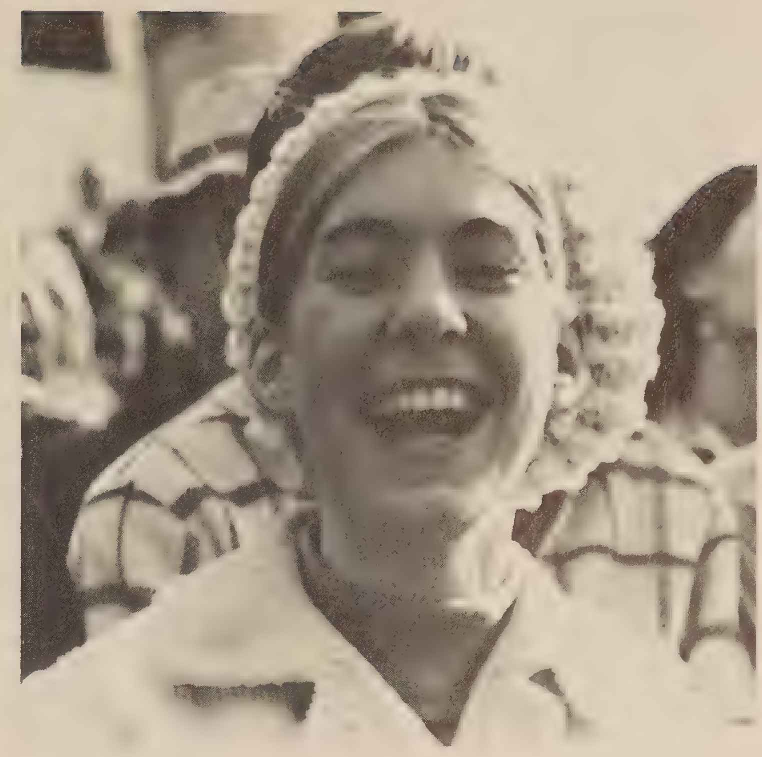
FOR THE FIRST TIME in many years the seniors have finally made use of their courtyard. John Allen and Guy Sibilla, who happens to be standing on the top of the picnic benches, horse around during their lunch break.



THE CRISP autumn weather, the cheers, the band, the game and the crowds all blended together to make the annual homecoming game a fun occasion full of smiles as clearly shown here by Janie Millious.

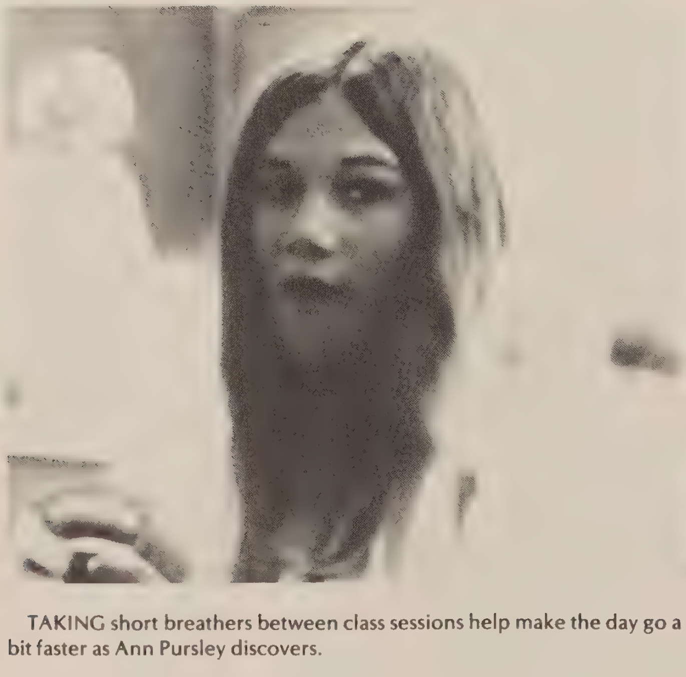
IN MEMORY OF

ROBERT ROBERTOVICH ALEXANDER SAZWICKI
SEPTEMBER 20, 1970

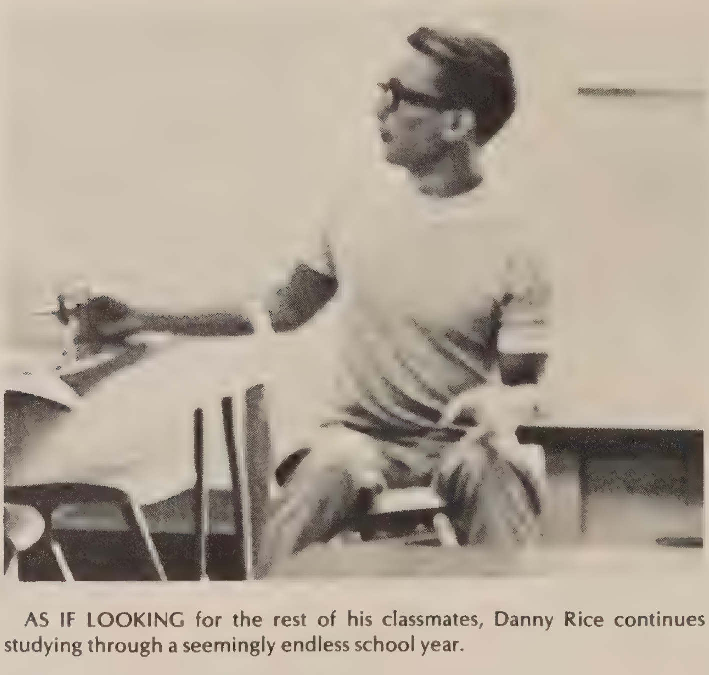
Twenty-three hundred individuals working together, laughing together, crying together, and studying together. Any happening, whether it's a football game, the Prom or a spirit chain, reveals the deep concern, the involvement, of twenty-three hundred who are one.

happenings

STUDYING is fine, but must it occur during the summer, too? Summer school science gets serious consideration from Bob Huff.



TAKING short breathers between class sessions help make the day go a bit faster as Ann Pursley discovers.



AS IF LOOKING for the rest of his classmates, Danny Rice continues studying through a seemingly endless school year.

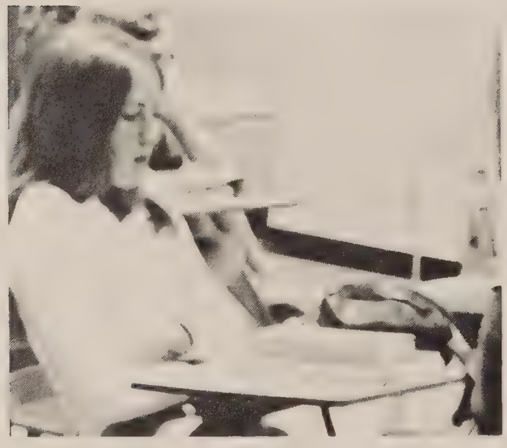
MADISONITES SUMMER AT OAKTON HIGH SCHOOL

A number of Madison students spent six weeks of their summer in the air-conditioned comfort of Oakton High, participating in the Summer School Program. Students studied in a relaxed atmosphere with students from several other area schools.

DALE HATTON, a summer school student, enjoys the sunshine on his way to class.

THE STRANGEST things go on in the halls . . . Marilyn Ibach, Alethea Bott, Cindy Ahrens, and Ann Stuntz prove that enterprising students can always find something to do.

ABOVE: The longer lunch periods leave Jim Alfieri, a senior, with time to cool off outside from the September heat before going back in to class. Below: Suzy Maynard and Kerry Anderson enjoy lunch on the way to absorb some physics at U.Md.



AND, of course, September brings the return to classes, books, and studying, as Janet Stupp is discovering.

AUTUMN LIFE revolves around the football bleachers; smoking, socializing, romancing, and relaxing are centered here. Angela Penino finds that the benches are a wonderful place just to goof off for awhile.

FALL MEANS INVASION OF BLEACHERS, CLASSES

Autumn at Madison is more than the ending of summer; it is a time for regaining a position in the flow of school life. It is the invasion of the bleachers, classrooms full after three months of silence, the reshuffling of twosomes, and participating in the ever-changing kaleidoscope which is Madison.

QUEEN DEE-DEE REIGNS OVER A JUNGLE BOOK

Strange jungle creatures abounded on the football field and in the cafeteria this Homecoming Day, as boa constrictors, toucans, and bears, among others, carried out the theme "Jungle Book." Queen Dee-Dee Pickett, with her court — Freshman Donna Hawley, Sophomore Denise Karalow, Junior Maureen McMahlon, and Seniors Jeanne Evans and Pat McGee — reigned over the day's festivities, which included the traditional dance and football game with elaborate half-time show. The winning float, by the Juniors, proclaimed "We've got you up a tree, Highlanders." The dance, with music by Grace provided a pleasant, relaxing end to Homecoming 1970.

THE LOOK OF LOVE: Dee-Dee Pickett's dimpled smile has captivated her date, Bob Rugo, as all the students who voted her Homecoming Queen.

ABOVE: The Homecoming game draws all sorts: the people watchers, the game watchers, the girl watchers, and the camera watchers. Varied though their interests are, between touchdowns, all "stand up and holler" when the pigskin lands behind the goal line. Below: After the excitement of the game, the soothing rhythm of a slow dance is welcome.

THESPIANS PRODUCE FALL PLAY, HARVEY

An invisible six-foot rabbit named Harvey? Impossible . . . until the Thespians produced the Fall Play, Harvey. The play, by Mary Chase, was the product of long, sometimes grueling, almost always fun hours of work by the cast and work crews. The student director, Jerry Jones, with the aid of Mrs. Nateman, led the cast in its presentation of the play.

Students found this year that they had a new rapport with the faculty and administration. Groups spontaneously congregated around teachers on monitoring duty, in their rooms before and after school and during lunches or study halls "just to talk" — sometimes about classwork, but more often about subjects from music to octupus wrestling.

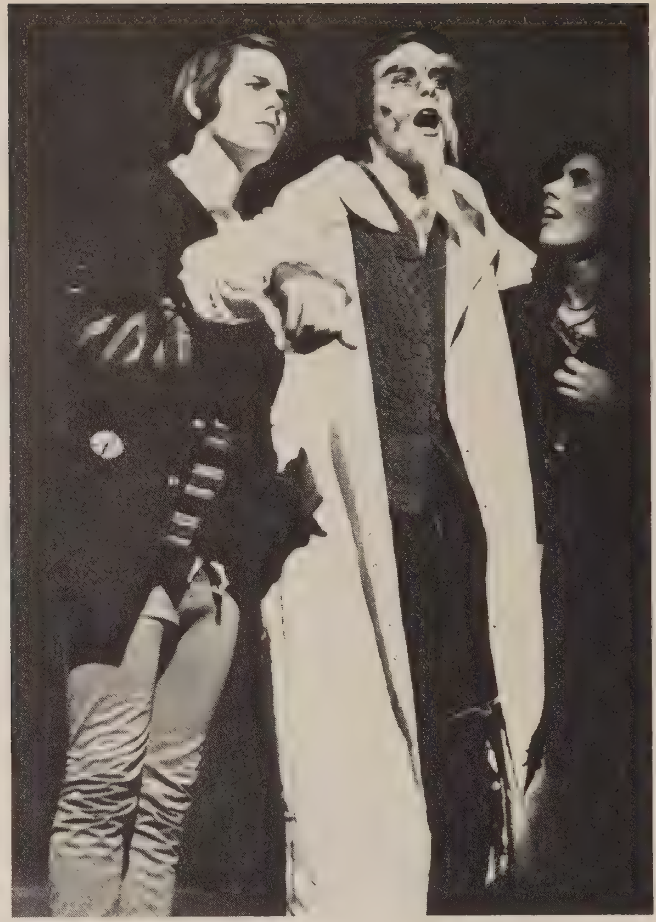
"IT'S ACADEMIC" HAS GOOD START

Hours of practicing quick answers paid off for this year's "It's Academic" team, Chris Bagley, Rick Bieser, captain Steve Pippin, and alternate Greg Rosenburger when they proceeded as far as semi-finals in the quiz show. The team tied for the best record in Madison's history of "It's Academic."



MAN OF LA MANCHA GARNERS ACCLAIM

Resounding with applause, strains of music, and snatches of dialogue, the auditorium was the scene for Madison's seventh annual musical. This year's production, "Man of La Mancha", although beset with such problems as rehearsals during an epidemic of laryngitis, an inadequate stage, and the possibility of sensorship of certain scenes, opened to huge crowds and was received with enthusiasm.

HARRY HALL as Don Quixote's horse, Rozinante, and Bruce Benedict as Sancho's ass, enjoy their meal.

THE ENTIRE CAST joins in a tribute to the little barber's "Golden Helmet of Mambrino", the shaving bowl which is transformed through Don Quixote's eyes.

LEFT: Don Quixote, revived by the strains of "The Impossible Dream" rises to resume his quest with the aid of Sancho and Dulcinea. Below: Shelton Gay as the padre listens understandingly to Jeanne Evans, who portrays the niece.

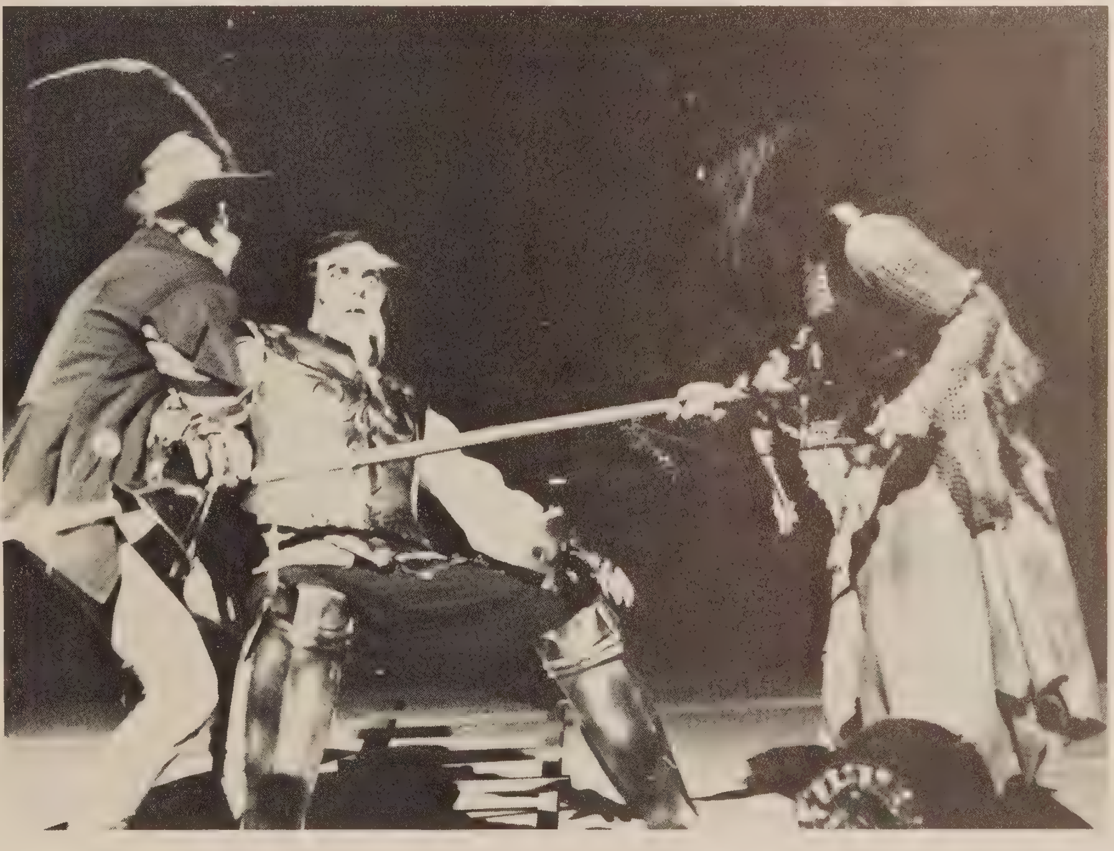
DON QUIXOTE finds himself in difficulty when he becomes too enthusiastic in battle, but is aided by his friends Sancho and Aldonza.



WINTER ACTIVITIES FOLLOW TRADITION

Winter at Madison, though active, was characterized by traditional activities: the pop music festival, Cans for Christmas drive, Burning of the Greens dance and basketball. Students began to move into second semester slump, Madison's most tried and true tradition, although a few still took some time out for classes.

JUNIORS Tim Binder and Pete Dodson find that a nice filmstrip spices up the winter (ABOVE). BELOW, Kathy Ganus and Gerry McDonough tackle the immense task of counting cans.

PEERING out from behind a pair of gogles, Keith Havens, below checks the accuracy of his chemistry experiment. To the right, Paula Johnson is transformed into a Christmas tree for a Cans for Christmas skit.

ATTESTING to the reality of the population explosion were the crowded conditions at pep assemblies. Students and even teachers such as Mr. Davis and Mr. Dye were forced to sit on the gym floor if they were to sit at all.

UP WITH PEOPLE TAKE TIME OUT TO VISIT MADISON

ONE OF "Up with People's" eight groups, in town for a concert at the White House, performed here at an assembly-concert early in March. Students made themselves casually comfortable on the floor and at times joined in with the group, clapping, and singing.

Above: Crowds of students and teachers spilled over from the jammed bleachers to the gym floor in front of the stage in order to gain the best seats for the concert. Above right: One of the lead guitarists, John Tracy, reveals his skill as he sings a tribute to modern music. Below right: Members from Hawaii and Iowa join in the chorus of "My Sweet Lord."

JOHNNY'S YEAR HERE IS FRUITFUL FOR ALL

Tall, good-looking Johnny Riedinger, this year's AFS foreign exchange student, was a pleasant addition to our student body this year. Johnny, a native of Germany, played on the soccer team, wrote a column for Hawk Talk, and in general was an asset to the school. The Gillies family was Johnny's American family.

A MAJOR amount of Johnny's time in America revolved around classes. Above, he clarifies a point in class. Below, Johnny follows the American practice of finishing a paper at the last minute.

RIGHT: Johnny addresses the AFS club, as he did several times during the year, speaking to members and other interested students on various aspects of life in Germany.

BETH DALE, a Senior, finds the Senior Study Hall a comfortable place to relax, talk, and — of course — read her English. (above)

MOMENTS OF SILENCE BUILD TOGETHERNESS

A few seconds of silence as two thousand students watch a pep building skit; a pause in the conversation between friends; the quiet comradeship of studying together . . . These quiet moments, though short, were an important part of students' lives this year. In these moments, the peacefulness which characterized the school this year was most easily felt, and the unstated feelings the students hold for each other were expressed wordlessly.

UNITY, an overriding sense of oneness with the hundreds of other students, emerges at a pep assembly as all concentrate on a spirit-raising skit.

An underclassman is a student not learning only his required subjects, but also learning how to get along with himself and others. He learns to become involved by participating in sports, clubs and organizations, and various activities within his own class such as class dinners, bake sales, and car washes. By the time an underclassman reaches his goal of being a graduate, he is prepared for the future ahead of him.

FRESHMEN ENJOY NEW EXPERIENCES

Football games, cheerleaders, pep rallies, class officers, and new faces. All of these were new and exciting experiences to the freshman class. Suddenly there were freedoms the baby warhawks never before had been allowed. A shock was the supervision that had always been in the halls, etc., was gone. Intramural sports was changed to interschool and pride in that rose. The contest for the spirit hawk every week is an opportunity for class of '74 to try and show their spirit to the rest of the school. Even if they don't win it, do they stop fighting? Never! On ye (baby) warhawks!

PONDERING thoughtfully to the words of wisdom, one of Miss Latkonski's German 1 classes takes in the new language to be learned.

SMILING at the camera for the photographer, Mr. Cacciapaglia's English class is only too happy to pose while the teacher doesn't catch one of the boys throwing what out the window.

TWIXT 'N 'TWEEN TIME

In between Seniors and Freshmen, beginning and almost ending are the Sophomores.
More experienced than the Freshmen, they're less than Juniors. To be twixt and 'tween can be frustrating and disheartening, but do they have any less spirit? Of course not! They're more than before! — So much, in fact, that they're one of the leading contenders for the Spirit Hawk every week! But it's not all fun and games — it's classes too.
This is when classes aren't much fun. But they survive . . .
Happily . . .

FREE 'N EASY TIME

With half of their high school years over, the class of '73 has members on the Varsity team, most can drive a car, most can afford to have a relaxing study hall in their schedule, and other sundry luxuries. At this point lessons are harder and grades are virtually important, especially if college is in mind. It's a time to be free 'n easy, and a don't-get-hasseled-over-everything time. Time goes so fast — but a moment ago was the excitement of entering high school and now there's but a year before graduation . . .

FLAUNTING Madison's strength at Homecoming, the Junior Float said that "Highlanders, We've Got You Up A Tree." Which was true — well . . . figuratively, anyway.

WORKING DOESN'T seem to be what this class is doing. To talk, gaze out of the window, or casually smile at the camera is more like it.

This year Madison has had a large turnover in faculty. We the students readily noticed and appreciated the new as well as the old members of the faculty and administration and their willingness to get to know the students and to become involved in student activities.

ADMINISTRATION

The leadership of Madison has changed hands this school year. Mr. Taylor M. Williams, the former Principal of Luther Jackson High and Intermediate School, is our new principal. Mr. Williams held his post at Luther Jackson for seventeen years; he is, obviously, an experienced man. Behind Mr. Williams are such capable people as Mr. Robert Williams, Mr. George Dozier, Mr. Harry Holsinger, and Miss Lois Tichenor. The Guidance Department also has changed. Besides looking different on the inside, there is a new Director of Guidance. Filling that important post is Mr. H. James Strohm. As we all know, he is backed by an efficient group. With such excellent leadership and guidance, the students of Madison look to the future when they shall take their places in a, hopefully, productive society.

Madison lost a fine teacher, a respected colleague, and a good friend in Mr. E. Parker on July 6, 1970.

SPECIAL SERVICES

Madison is indeed fortunate to have the valuable assistance of our special services. The patient librarians, Mrs. Ardai and Mrs. Price, provide us a well-organized library with all the trimmings. Miss Nicolay is certainly a friend to all, a maker of merriment. Four times a year she brings us joy and good cheer. The cafeteria staff labors for three lunch shifts, but the extra students and added burdens do not stop them. The classes can thank Mrs. Hopkins for not being financially in the red and the secretaries for staying on top of the paperwork. Mrs. Fowler, our school nurse, so graciously supplies us with height and weight records, eye tests, ear tests, T.B. tests, and a haven for the ailing, a clean haven thanks to the custodians. These people do an outstanding job. Without them Madison could not function.

The year of 1970-1971 has been an interesting one for both girl's and boy's sports. Previous years have given the teams solid backing and gained experience. Involvement in sports promotes spirit and the ability to work as a team.

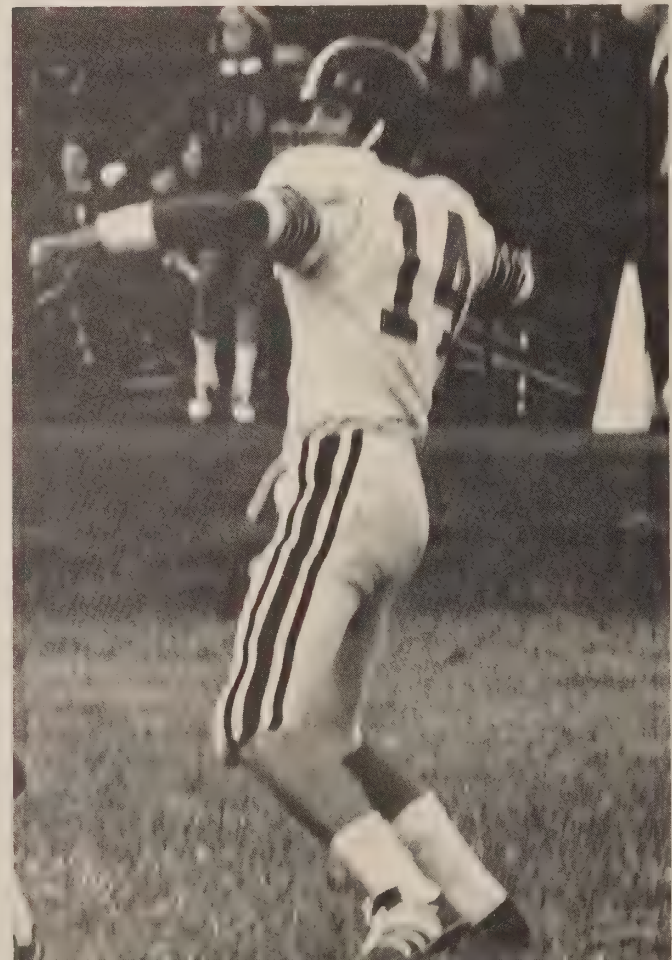
PRIDE AND HUSTLE MARK 1970 SEASON

Although the record doesn't indicate a very successful season, our 1970 Varsity Warhawks were always in there, fighting for our school. Backed by the excellent guidance of Head Coach Bill Leskovar and Assistant Coaches Ernie Supulski and Barry Williams, the team devoted themselves to pride in their efforts on the football field. This strong effort the team displayed aided Coach Leskovar in rebuilding, although a loss of many experienced players from the previous years team proved a handicap. However, returning lettermen from last years' team provided the needed leadership for molding together all the inexperienced players into a well rounded Varsity football team.

Coach Leskovar and those players returning to the Varsity squad next year hopefully anticipate a successful season in 1971.

DROPPING back to prepare to pass, Quarterback Roger Neighborgall sights his receiver downfield.



LEFT: RUNNING to daylight for a sizeable gain behind the superb kind of blocking he had all afternoon against the Highlanders is senior Joe McMahon.

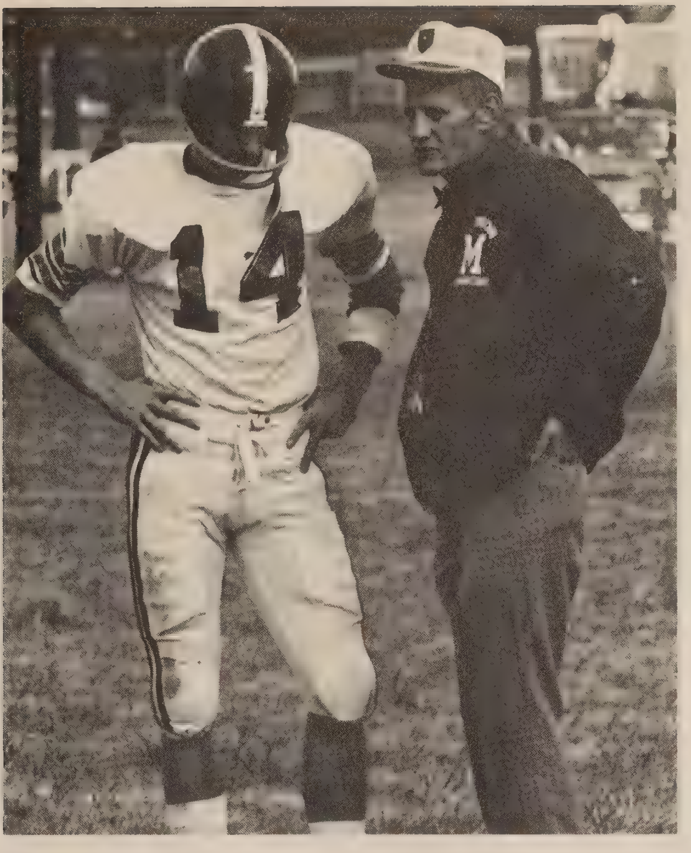
LEFT: SITTING disconsolately on the sidelines with an injury, senior Tom Embry can do little to aid the fortunes of the Madison Warhawks but hope.

BELOW: PLAYING against McLean in Madison's Homecoming, junior Tom Determan pulls down a pass for another long gain against the Highlanders.

STOPPING a McLean defender dead in his tracks with a vicious stiff-arm, senior halfback Tom Embrey rounds end for another of his numerous long gains.

OUTWEIGHED at times by twenty pounds a man, Madison's offensive line still managed at times to supply fine blocking, as they do here for Tom Embrey.



TALKING over a bit of strategy during a time-out in the Homecoming game are Coach Bill Leskovar and his junior quarterback, Roger Neighborgall.

SIGNALING a Madison touchdown is the referee as Andy March goes over the goal line for Madison's lone tally in the annual season finale between Madison and Marshall.

BRINGING junior Tom Determan to a stop is no easy task as the three McLean defenders found out in the Homecoming game.

BASKING joyfully in the glory of what truly must be one of the highpoints of his entire season, Roger Neighborgall sits on the sidelines with his Mr. Legs award.

NUDGING the ball over the goal line for a touchdown is senior halfback Joe McMahon, while five McLean defenders watch helplessly.

J.V. HASTOUGH SEASON

This year's J.V. team had many problems as they ended with an 0-8 record. They were a relatively small team, raked by injuries in the latter part of the season, and there was but a handful of returners from last year's freshman team. Despite all this, the team had a good corps of running backs, headed by Ed Spicer, Glen Pearish, Bill Ceconi, and Billy Weber. Frank Lawson and Ron Brunson did a fine blocking job, and frosh Bob Ingram must be commended for fine all-around play.

FROSH HAVE EXCELLENT YEAR

This year's frosh football team gave a fine showing, winning all but one game. Steve Brown, Rick Smith and Roy Weaver must be complimented on their fine running performances. Jeff Chellemi earned plaudits for his great defensive play at middle guard, and Eric Minard and Brian Young blocked extremely well on offense. If Coach Hannah has another team as talented as this one again next year, he may consider himself lucky.

#low score wins 5th in District

This year's cross country team was a far cry from the traditional Madison c.c. teams of the past. Instead of showing up for meets and doing little else, this year's team ran up a respectable 3-4 record, including an excellent 15 to 50 win over Herndon. Scott Brickard, Madison's #1 man had an outstanding year, running 3rd in District, 7th in Regionals, and 25th in State. Solid performances were also turned in by junior Pat Morrison, senior Dodge Havens, and senior Rick Lineburg. The future looks very promising for cross country teams at Madison since this year's team is certain to attract more student participation.

SOCCER GROWS IN POPULARITY

Soccer, now in its second year at Madison, has rapidly increased in popularity. The number of players has doubled since the first season last year. Madison had two teams this year; the "A" team, with a record of 3-6-1, and the "B" team, with a record of 5-4-1.

The "A" team, composed mostly of last year's team members, had a tough time winning against the tougher, more experienced teams of the Soccer Leagues first division.

One of Madison's Kuwaiti students, Karim Wahidi, was the high scorer of the "A" team with six goals. Second in scoring was team captain John Filippone with five goals. Other scorers were Bob Artis with one.

The "B" team had a more successful season, finishing second in their conference, behind Stuart "B". The high scorers for the "B" team were Hoan Dolinh, and Fahad Al-Eesa, with a combined total of fifteen goals. Other scorers were Bryan Ichikawa, who had two goals, and Tommy King and Jeff Atkinson with one apiece.

DAVE TROWBRIDGE battles a N.O.V.A. opponent during a post-season exhibition game as Jay Lacy comes to his aid. Mike Dodge circles around to gain position.

TOMMY KING, playing right wing, drives past two defenders from Landover Hills, a top ranked team from Maryland.

This year's varsity had a tough season, finishing 4-16 overall. The season's highpoint undoubtedly must be the triple overtime victory at Edison. A fine win was also registered at Fairfax where Terry Mobley sank the winning foul shot with four seconds left. Another excellent victory came over Herndon in one overtime in the District tournament. Leading scorers this season were Roger Carroll, who will return next year, and senior Jay Franklin.

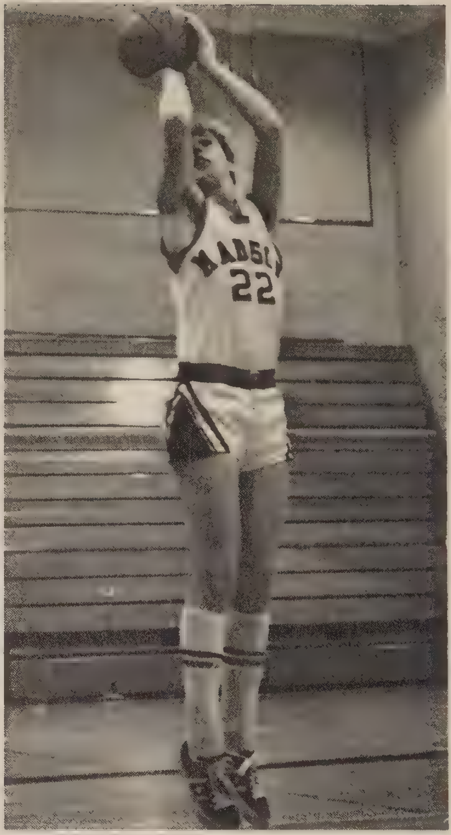
DESPITE BEING SWARMED upon by three Herndon players, junior Terry Mobley remains undaunted and prepares to pass off to an open man for Madison.

LEFT: SCORING two points on a dunk shot, junior Roger Neighborgall demonstrates the combination of strength and leaping ability needed for one to sink this difficult shot.

SENIOR LARRY Hicks, a transfer to Madison this year, leaps and prepares to bank a right-handed lay-up off the backboard after driving down the side of the lane.

CAREFULLY taking aim on the basket before he shoots, Roger Neighborgall is about to score another basket for the Warhawks.

USING the set shot which made him one of the leading Warhawk scorers, Jay Franklin shoots from the corner.



EXHIBITING perfect form is senior guard Steve Stacy as he prepares to take a jumper from the outside.

DRIVING in and laying it up for a sure two points is junior Roger Carrol, high scorer for the Warhawks this season.

DISPLAYING the style which enabled him to sink the winning foul shot in the Fairfax game is junior Terry Mobley.

J. V. SHOWS TEAMWORK

With excellent efforts and teamwork by both teams and coach, Madison produced a fine J.V. team. Good playing ability and desire was certainly shown by the entire team, but perhaps best exemplified by Pete Czarnecki, Paul Archibald, and Frank Blackburn. Coach McLean and the team deserve congratulations for a fine year.

FRESHMEN FIRE AWAY

Good coaching, hustle, sweat. Put these together, and you will have a team, a team that will always do its best to bring home the victory to Madison.

The "Baby B-Ballers" fared an evened up season in 1971, finishing with a 6-6 record. Their fine playing, and ball handling on the court was never a disappointment to any spectator.

This team is still young, and in years to follow, this team will develop into fine J.V. and Varsity teams. Don't lose faith in these fine ball handlers.

VARSITY FINISHES A FINE SEASON IN STYLE

The varsity matmen wrestled another fine season in 1970-71. Their 5-4-1 dual meet record, while not impressive in itself was complemented by an excellent showing in the tournaments.

The Warhawks captured second place in the District Tournament, with outstanding performances by Craig Bowman and John Lingenfelter. In the Regional Tournament the grapplers placed third, followed by a tenth place finish in the State Tournament.

Led by the fine coaching of Mr. Verciglio the Varsity Wrestlers show even better prospects for the future.

RICK DIXON, District runner-up in the 185 pound weight class wraps up Jeff Burrows of McLean for the win.

COACH VERCIGLIO speaks his piece of mind while Coach Maguschak concentrates on the action on the mat.

DAVE THOMPSON drives his unlimited opponent to the mat in a rough match.

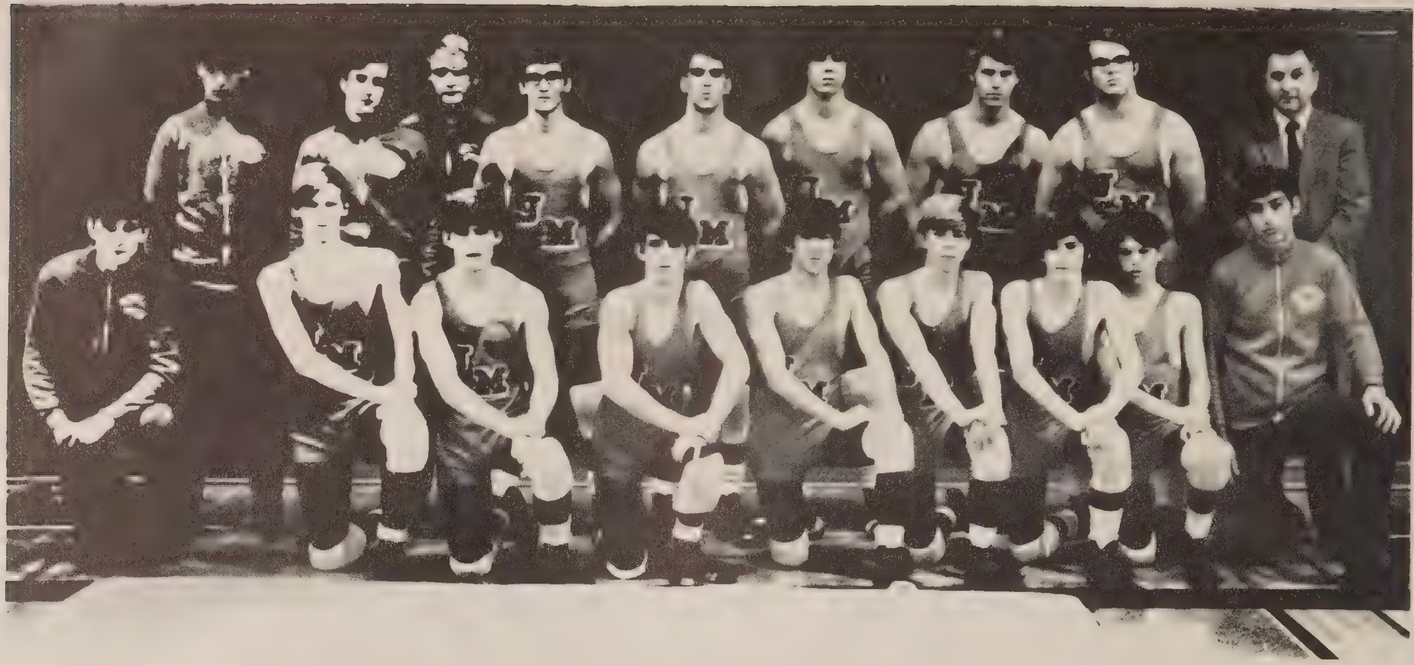
JOHN LINGENFELTER tries still another pinning combination on his frustrated McLean opponent.

THIS ENDED the bout between the big district powers Madison and McLean.

JOHN HARRIS drives his opponent to the ground in one of his district meets during the season.

MIKE WHALEN Madison's finest wrestler has an easy time wrapping up his highlander opponent. He assures Madison of a place in the regional tournaments.



KNEELING: B. Buckley, C. Wood, S. Belknap, R. Gibson, B. Corkery, M. Marr, P. Whalen, J. Duffy, C. Feurst. STANDING: A. Edwards, E. Healy, M. MacGee, A. Ellermets, G. Parrish, M. Pursley, J. LaFever, C. Whitaker, Coach Maguschak.

J.V. DISTRICT CHAMPS

The J.V. wrestling team finished a fine season in 1971, winning their last match and capturing the Great Falls District title. This effort can only be described in the terms of pride and hard work displayed by both the members of this team and their coach Mr. Magushak.

It can only be expected that all of these wrestlers will find their place on the varsity squad next year and will produce another district champion.

TRACKMEN RUN HARD WITH TOUGH SEASON

The Varsity Track Team showed another fine team as the spring of 1971 found them working around the track. Though a loss of many of last year's stars was a problem, a great deal of talent remained for the team and the coach, Mr. Weaver.

This lack of experience was made up for by the desire for the sport and determination to do well and have the strength to reign as a strong contender in the always tough Great Falls District.

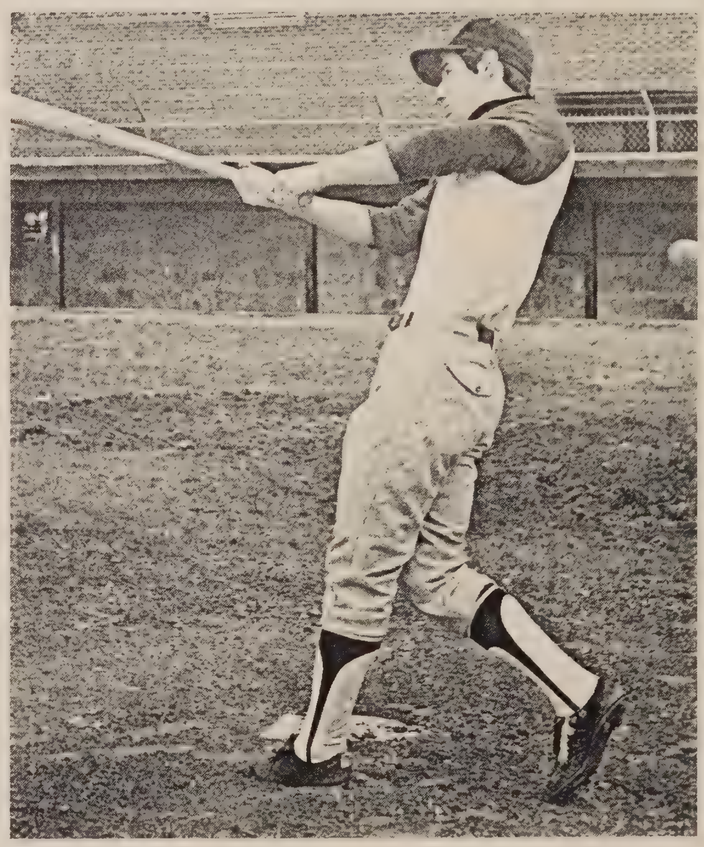
RETURNING PLAYERS MAKE GOOD SEASON SEEM QUITE POSSIBLE

In recent years, Madison's baseball team has been the strong point of its athletic program, and this year should be no exception. A large percentage of returnees from the last year's team should provide valuable experience. Last year's entire infield of the third baseman Kenny Malone, short stop Robbie Carter, second baseman Ronnie Riley, First baseman Tom Embrey, and catcher Tom Determan, returns again. A strong pitching staff of Jay Franklin, Ronnie McDonald, and Roger Neighborgall, all of whom are returning, should be the strong point of what shapes up as a truly fine team.



PRACTICING the superb hitting style that made him lead-off man the previous season, second baseman Ronnie Riley waits for the start of a new season.

KEN MALONE keeps a careful eye on the ball as he starts down the baseline during a game with Marshall.

A FORCEFUL SWING sends the ball far out in right field.

ON MARSHALL's home ground, Jay Franklin displays his batting as well as pitching abilities.

TENNIS TEAM

This year, the tennis team, although hampered by a loss of many fine players, performed well, replacing their lack of experience with hard work and determination. Practice is a very important fundamental for winning, and the team does practice. They practice very hard. Mr. Chaudet makes them practice very hard. With hard training and young hearts, Madison's racket men will battle volley after volley on the wide courts and emerge victorious.

VARSITY AND J.V. TEAMS PUCK THEIR WAY THROUGH ANOTHER VIGOROUS SEASON

All of the girls on the Junior Varsity and on the Varsity hockey teams showed much team spirit and eagerness to win during the season. Involvement in the game and practice after school everyday proved to be worthwhile. Mrs. Birch, the Varsity coach, and Miss Pound, the J. V. coach, guided the teams through the games. Determination made the season rewarding.

DONNA Hawley is spotted by Anne Davis as she does the "V-seat".

GIRLS PERFORM FOR ENTERTAINMENT

This year's gymnastic team was composed of sixteen girls and was headed by Miss Pound. The girls are Janet Bourland, Laurie Bowcock, Margirie Bowers, Debbie Buccholz, Anne Davis, Sheryll Buck, Becky Davis, Sherry Hemma, Jill Lake, Criss Jadick, Carol Laserte, Cathy Leonard, Amy Lynch, Lynn Willwerth, Sheree Simmons, and Evelyn Morgner. The team had meets with other schools to demonstrate the grace and strength involved in gymnastics. Some of the apparatuses used in gymnastics are the uneven bars, the horse, the balance beam, and various mats.

DISPLAYING excellent form, Criss Jadick performs the "angel balance" on the uneven bars, while Anne Davis spots for her.

CATHY Leonard maintains beautiful position as she does the "duck walk" on the balance beam.

Clubs, organizations, and other extracurricular activities flourish at Madison. Meetings are held to plan, work, and carry out the club's program. This year organizations played an even more vital role in school when they took over some of the former responsibilities of the S.C.A. The involvement in these activities shows the tremendous student spirit at Madison.

INTERLANGUAGE CLUB HAS EXCITING YEAR

Composed of students interested in foreign cultures, the Interlanguage Club had a different and exciting year. Members were briefed on various peoples, places, and customs by fellow students. Then, after studying a country, the group would go to its embassy and gain additional valuable information. Several club dinners with international dishes were also enjoyed. Guest speakers added much to the meetings, often bringing slides, movies, and pictures along with them. The club had several fund-raising projects such as bake-sales, to pay for all their expenses.

LATIN CLUB LEARNS OF ROMAN CULTURE

The Latin Club is composed of students interested in the culture of the Roman people. Frequent field trips highlight the club's activities. This year the entire group journeyed to Washington to see the movie "Julius Caesar". A meal at an Italian restaurant was an interesting (?) gourmet experience. Later on in the year, the club joined together with other area Latin clubs, and held a large Roman banquet. Speakers and slides also broadened the members' knowledge. A trip to Italy was planned for Easter or the summer, since last year's jaunt proved to be so enjoyable.

ART CLUB ACTIVE THROUGHOUT SCHOOL

Members of the Art Club had an active year. Two art shows proved quite successful in showing the large artistic ability Madison students have. The group also kept a bulletin board in one of the art rooms, showing any outside contests students could enter. Besides their art shows, they were frequently involved in other school projects. Art club members provided picture frames throughout the school, and occasionally served as art student teachers. The group also added several books to Madison's art library.

DEBATE; BRIDGE VERY ACTIVE

The James Madison Debate Team, composed of four highly skilled varsity debaters, established a very creditable record for itself this year. Each two-man team participated in five invitational debate meets, and made a fine showing in all of them. The many long hours of research involved helped the group improve their delivery and procedure techniques. All members benefited from their experiences, gaining much valuable knowledge about public speaking.

The basic and more complex skills of bridge are taught to JMHS students through the efforts of the Bridge Club. Guest speakers added interest to many of the meetings. Though no cumulative score was kept for "friendly" club games, extremely competitive matches were held with other area schools.

DEBATE TEAM: M. Ebert, A. Weisnet, P. Dodson, A. Sykes.

BRIDGE CLUB: Allen Trefzger, Mike Cleary, Kent Scheidigger, Steve Fama, Franklin Rutledge, Arnold Carter, Peter Dodson.

SCIENCE CLUB STRESSES INDIVIDUALISM

The Science Club provided many interesting speakers and field trips for members this year. A talk on ecology proved to be one of the major highlights of the year. The annual Science Fair was again sponsored by the organization, and many winners went on to further regional and state competition. Individual research was encouraged and members were urged to present their findings to the club.

MATH CLUB WORKS WITH COMPUTER

One of the most stimulating clubs at Madison is the Math Club. Members delve into the world of the computer, solving once impossible problems in a matter of minutes. Talks are frequently given by fellow students on the intrinsics of a mathmatical career. Most members also participated on the Math Team, which competed with other area schools in the Great Falls District. Due to hours of practice the team fared well, winning almost all of its matches.

MONTPELIER STAFF WORKS LONG HOURS

The Montpelier staff, and editor Mary Okon, especially, devoted much time and thought to the production of the 1970-71 yearbook. Headed by Mr. Shaffer, all involved worked long hours identifying pictures, writing copy and designing layouts. Almost all staff members attended either the Catholic University Workshop during the summer, or the Columbia University Conference in the spring. Both meetings aided students in the making of the yearbook.

Each section had its own peculiarities: Organizations — the many pictures to identify; Sports — finding enough good pictures to use; and so on. Tension and tempers were high at deadline time, and the publications room soon became known as "Ulcer Alley". Despite the details, we of the yearbook staff feel we have an accurate picture of life at Madison this year.

HAWK TALK MAKES USE OF INNOVATIONS

Hawk Talk, or as it is more commonly known — Hawk Tawk, provided entertaining as well as informative news about life at Madison. Innovations included use of the new headline printer, occasional six-page issues, and student layout of the pages. Because these changes cut down the printing costs, Hawk Talk increased the number of issues published, and came out about every three weeks. Deadlines seemed to come sooner than ever, and many teachers grimaced while letting students out of class to work on the paper. Co-editors for the first half of the school year were Suzy Maynard and Brian Beck; during the second half Vicki Sutter and John Klemm took over the job. Page editors varied frequently, often with each issue. Some of the credit for hard work must also go to sponsor Mrs. Donohoe, who consoled the staff in times of need.

HERITAGE HAS NEW FORMAT

Heritage, Madison's literary magazine, provided an outlet for students with literary and artistic talents. This year several small rough issues of student contributions were published, culminating in a final quality issue in the spring. The final issue included the best of all the contributions received during the year.

NEEDED CLUBS HELP SCHOOL

Newly established this year, the Audio-Visual Club proved beneficial to students and teachers alike. Members worked to organize films, records, slides and all other materials relating to audio-visual equipment. They were also available for lessons on the use of these machines.

The Publications-Business Staff, a much needed group of students, labored long hours to solve the financial problems of all school-sponsored publications. They conducted all financial, circulation, and advertising affairs, including finding the money to pay for the seemingly extreme bills. Selling old yearbooks and pictures at PTA meetings was one of their many projects for getting more money for the publications' treasury.

THESPIANS HAVE ACTIVE SEASON

One of the most active clubs at Madison is Thespians. Members of this organization sponsored varied dramatic activities including two three-act plays, and an experimental one-act spring play. They also provided a drama workshop in the fall for students interested in various aspects of the theater. A talent service is provided for area hospitals and other needy groups. Finally competition in the state one-act play festival provides a chance for Thespians to compare their abilities with those of other teenagers. The club's large group participation in other activities besides plays has proven their eagerness and willingness to work hard for the benefit of the entire school.

NIKE CLUB EXPLORES WOMEN'S CAREERS

Opened this year to all Madison girls with a 3.0 average, the NIKE Club again proved itself an asset to students at Madison. The club, in co-operation with the Vienna Business and Professional Women's Club, explored the various careers available to women. Frequent speakers, such as the cosmetologist on the left, explained the education needed for the job, duties, and average salary. Besides having talks, the club worked closely with the Guidance Department to aid its members in the selection of colleges. Occasional field trips were held, including ones to such varied places as the FBI and the Computer Data Institute.

MUSIC AND RECORD CLUB HAS FESTIVAL

This year was a successful one for the large Music and Record Club. They sponsored the widely-attended and profitable Pop Festival in which area musicians participated, receiving prizes of up to fifty dollars. Music in the cafeteria was also due to the club's persistent efforts. They planned to sponsor a rock concert in the spring or summer, similar to the one held last year on Earth Day.

MADISON CLUB ADDS TO SCHOOL SPIRIT

The Madison Club was a major service organization at JMHS this year, especially valuable in their efforts to increase school pride. They helped with nearly every SCA drive, including the March of Dimes and Cans for Christmas. Other service projects were parking cars, serving at athletic banquets, ushering at plays and selling tickets.

MADISONETTES DO COMMUNITY WORK

The girl's counterpart of the Madison Club was Madisonettes. Besides helping with minor tasks in school, they aided many community organizations. At Thanksgiving members gave food baskets to needy families. Each Madisonette sold ten fruitcakes at Christmas and gave the money to handicapped children. UNICEF and ALSAC were also helped.

FTA CLUB GAINS VALUABLE EXPERIENCE

The major activity of the Future Teachers of America Club (FTA) this year was student teaching. At the beginning of the year, all members were assigned to a specific teacher in their requested grade. Then, every two weeks for half a day, they went to either Flint Hill or Louise Archer Elementary School to work. Depending on the teacher, students were able to do everything from grading papers to completely taking over the class. Meetings were held periodically at which speakers told of their experiences in the teaching profession. The club also held two faculty teas, and sent three delegates to the FTA State Convention at Richmond. Bake sales and the sale of zip code directories enabled members to give a scholarship.

ROW 4: Charlie Mott, Jim Andrews, Calvin Marsden, Bernie Chere, Mr. Fowler.

VOCATIONAL GROUPS PREPARE FOR CAREERS

DECA (Distributive Education Club of America) was a co-curricular club composed of all students enrolled in D.E. Its purposes were to develope leadership abilities and to increase members' social, civic, and vocational consciousness. Frequent luncheon meetings were held with speakers on various careers. District, state, and national competitions based on curriculum were entered by many of the students.

Whereas DECA is concerned more with retailing, ICT (Industrial Co-operative Training) members learn a skill trade. Students also work at a paid job during afternoons as in DECA.

FHA HELPS COMMUNITY AND SCHOOL

One of the largest clubs in the school, the Future Homemakers of America (FHA) had a profitable and fun year. Starting with an initiation party for new members, they sponsored a Homecoming float, and had a November trip to Williamsburg, Va. During the Christmas season they held a special bazaar, where all items were handmade by members. A caroling party was turned into a useful event when members stuffed stockings for underprivileged children. Their Valentine's Day Party was enjoyed by area handicapped children. In March the club sponsored an Alexandria Tour, culminating the year with a final banquet in May.

GAA; VARSITY CLUB AID ATHLETIC SECTION

The Girls' Athletic Association again proved itself to be a worthwhile and involved organization. By providing service for the Girls' Physical Education Department, members hoped to promote widespread participation in all girls' sports of the school. Through working the concessions at football games, having bakesales, and selling Madison T-shirts and sweatshirts, the club was able to raise much money for new sports equipment. Around Christmas the group collected S & H stamps, and bought 75 gifts with them for needy children in Fairfax.

The Varsity Club is composed of boys who have earned a varsity letter in any sport. They aided the Boys' Athletic Department by being gym assistants and promoting school spirit.

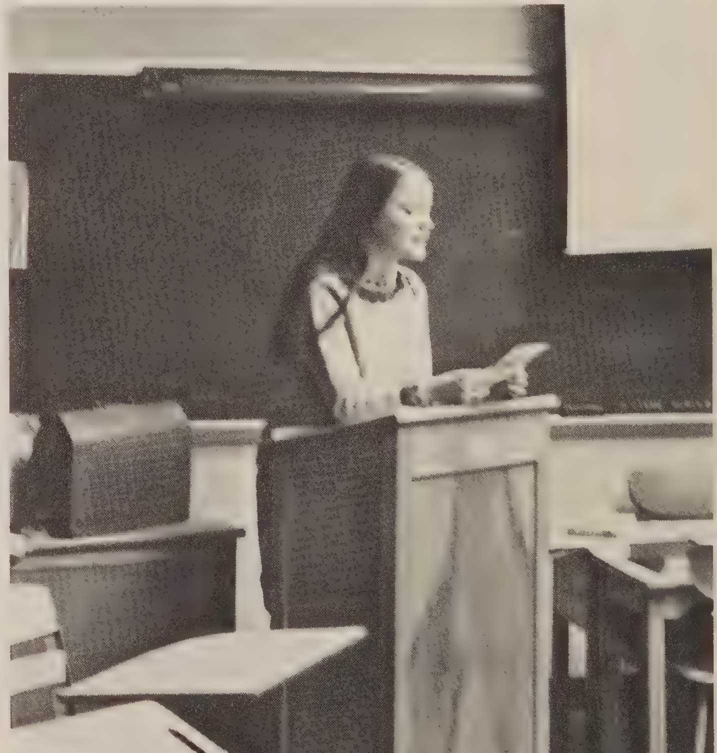
AFS CLUB LEARNS OF FOREIGN CULTURES

The American Field Service Club (AFS) was Madison's largest organization this year. Their size enabled them to hold many successful programs and projects. In October they had a Halloween Carnival at the Vienna Community Center which grossed over three hundred dollars. An International Dinner, an Educational Week, and a Discount Card Week were held in the spring. However, the most important goal the AFS Club accomplished was the sponsoring of a German exchange student, Johnny Reidinger. He and other foreign teenagers spoke at a school assembly, as well as at several club meetings.



ANNE Stunz fulfills her duties as Vice President of AFS by introducing a speaker at a club meeting.

CHOIR; MADRIGALS HAVE SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Choral Department again had an extremely successful year presenting interpretations of Handel, Bach, Dunne, and the contemporary Russell Wollen. The Concert Choir gave the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts, as well as participating in concerts at the Washington Cathedral, Pan American Union, Lisner Auditorium, and Bach Festival. The Madrigals, an extremely selective group of singers, performed at the State Department, US Capitol, and several other private schools and organizations. Receiving excellent reviews everywhere they went, the group was invited on a eight-city European tour during the summer of 1971. Contributions from the metropolitan community and Madison students helped make the trip possible.

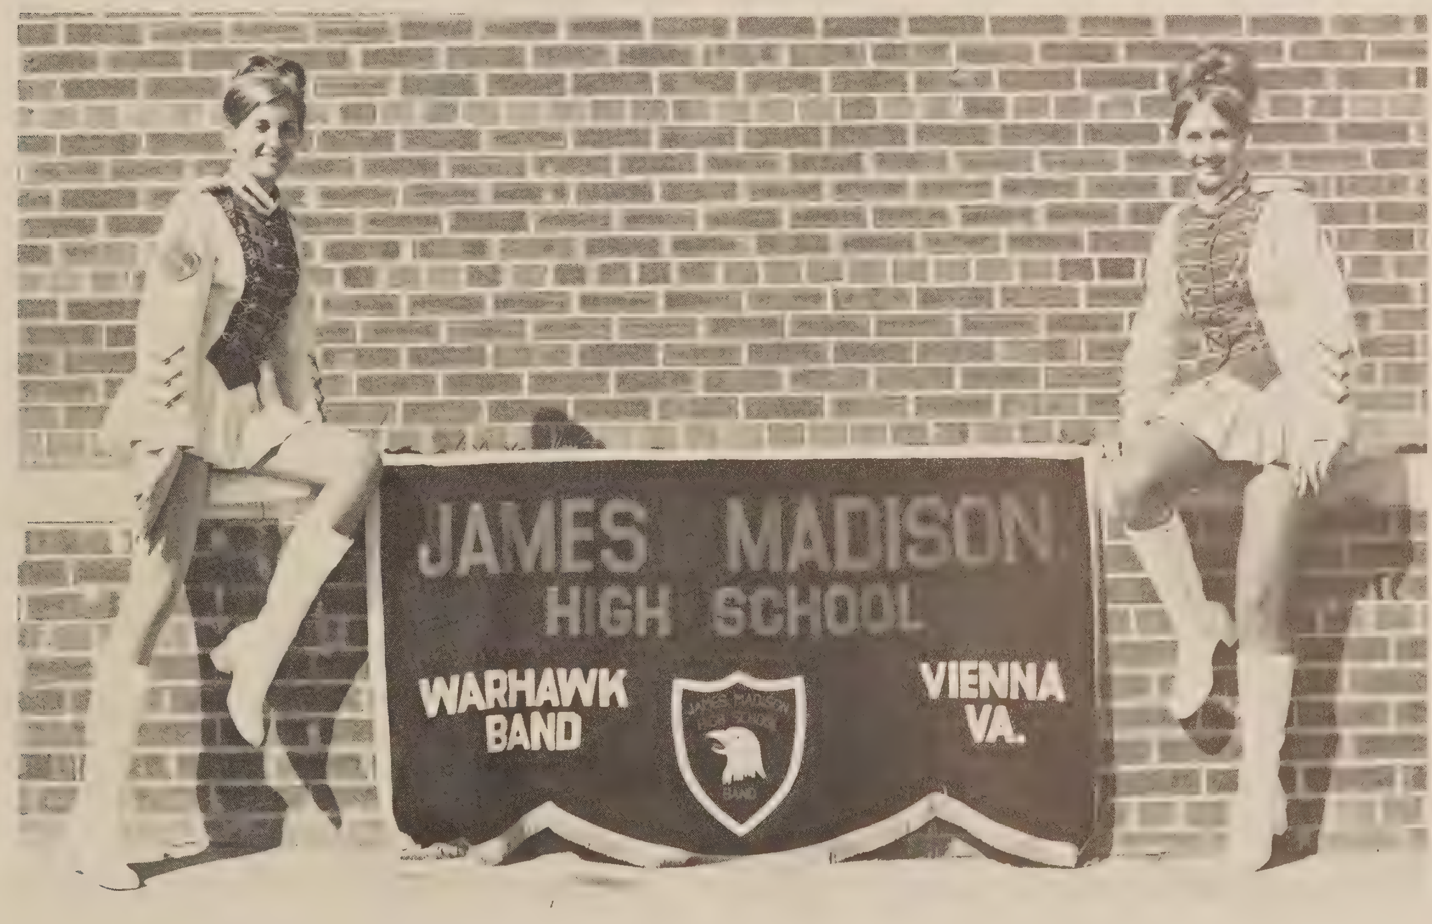
MAJORETTES GIVE SHOWS AT GAMES

The Majorettes are an integral part of school games. They are the ones who freeze at football halftime doing baton routines to the band's music. This year they also performed at pep rallies and basketball games, twirling flags, fire, and just regular batons. In November they competed in a statewide baton twirling contest in Richmond and received first place.



KAREN GRANTHAM and Susan Schneider carry the band banner during football games, and march at the head of the group.

BANDS SHOW MADISON SKILL IN SUPERIOR YEAR

The Madison High School Bands had one of their most outstanding years in 1970-71. The Marching Band continued to play at all home football games, while the selective Pep Band attended away games. They also participated in the town Halloween Parade, and received second prize. Eighteen Symphonic Band members were chosen for the All Regional Band, and five of these — Jeff Leppo, Jim McDonald, Everett Bender, Cliff Young, and Ralph Graves — went to All State. Performances for the school included the Christmas and Spring Concerts, and supplying the music for the musical. They also competed in an area Band Festival. During the spring, an exchange program was held with of Long Island, New York. Each band visited the other's school and gave a concert.

HONOR SOCIETY HAS SPEAKER PROGRAM

Members of the James Madison Chapter of the National Honor Society are selected for their merit in scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Juniors and seniors with a 3.2 average who meet the requirements of the club's constitution are chosen. In October the group inducted seventy new members. This year the organization acted as a co-ordinator for a Madison tutoring service. They also established a regular schedule of speakers on various topics for the benefit of the entire school.

MERIT HONORED BY QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is an international honor society for junior and senior students who have done superior work on one of Madison's publications. Membership is limited and all who belong must have high grades as well as an accumulation of 100 points from literary work. The group was active this year and sponsored several money-raising projects to better the school.

SCA PROMOTES NEW SCHOOL CONSTITUTION

The Student Council Association (SCA) of James Madison led the drive for a new school constitution this year. They also put on Homecoming and the Cans for Christmas drive. During the spring a free school week was held, and a magazine drive gained money for the school. A twenty-one mile Walk for Mankind enabled students to aid starving children in Asia.

Each year businesses in our area buy yearbook ads for the MONTPELIER. Without these ads the quality of Madison's publications would be decreased. At first consideration, the school life of Madison and the outside business world don't seem to be related and yet from this aspect they are very much involved with each other.
